

Any required module failure abstains from that claim level; Module D is diagnostic only and never changes selection or permission.